Chapter 1 by Eden Campbell

Rosa fell still. Her ears pricked to the sound of a drop which splashed from somewhere behind her.

She wanted to turn around, but something in her stirred and she was rooted to the spot.

Another drip.

She had to turn around and see the source, but why weren't her feet working for her. Instead of turning her towards the sound, they ran.

Drip.

It was only dripping, for goodness sake. Feet! Calm down!

But Rosa ran until she found herself outdoors. It was a calm day, no rain. Yet she still heard the dripping behind her, only beginning to surround her now.

The noises got louder and louder, almost deafening

And then
